

STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA
GOVERNOR PAT McCrORY

Press Release

Governor McCrory Announces
Nomination to Industrial Commission

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
Tuesday, April 7, 2015

919-814-2100
govpress@nc.gov

Raleigh, NC – Governor Pat McCrory has nominated Christopher Loutit for appointment to the North Carolina Industrial Commission, pending approval by the North Carolina General Assembly.

- Christopher Loutit (Wake County) - Loutit is the chief deputy commissioner for the North Carolina Industrial Commission. Prior to this, Loutit was the administrator of the Industrial Commission's operations, overseeing 160 employees. Before working for the Industrial Commission, he was partner at Johnson, Lambeth & Brown, Attorneys at Law in Wilmington. He also worked at The Bank Street Group, LLC in New York as a corporate finance analyst. Loutit received his J.D. at American University in Washington, D.C.

The Industrial Commission is tasked with the administering of the Workers' Compensation Act, Law Enforcement Officers', Fireman's Rescue Squad Workers' and Civil Air Patrol members, Death Benefits Act, Tort Claim Act and Childhood Vaccine-related Injury Compensation Program. The term length is six years.

###