

Educational Conference Materials Are Now Available

If you have registered for the 21st Annual Workers' Compensation Educational Conference, the conference materials are now available to download. Please refer to the website link contained on your confirmation postcard and in the e-mail from International Workers' Compensation Foundation for the link to access the materials.

For more information on the conference and to register in advance, please contact Jeanne Bush or Eric Oxfeld at the International Workers' Compensation Foundation office by telephone at (386) 677-0041, fax at (386) 677-0155, or e-mail at IWCF@bellsouth.net. You may also register at the conference.

A paper copy of conference materials will no longer be provided to attendees. In addition to accessing to the materials from the link, flash drives containing the materials will be available at the conference. The Raleigh Convention Center provides limited Wi-Fi access and limited access to electronic plugs for laptops and other devices. We strongly encourage you to download or print any materials in advance of the Conference. Thank You.
