Important Notice to Employee: Your disability compensation has been stopped because you have returned to work. You are entitled to a trial return to work for a period not to exceed nine months, unless you have been released by an authorized treating physician to unrestricted work, in which case your trial return to work may be limited to 45 days. During your trial return to work, you may be entitled to partial disability compensation if, because of your on-the-job injury, you earn less wages now than before your injury. In order to request that your compensation be reinstated if your trial return to work is unsuccessful, you should complete Form 28U, which may be obtained by calling (800) 688-8349. In addition, you should notify an appropriate person at the company named below in order to request that your compensation be reinstated:
