About Kids' Chance of NC

The North Carolina organization of Kids' Chance was formed in 2004 by professionals in the workers' compensation community, including lawyers, insurers, employers and medical and rehabilitation professionals. We award scholarships annually to students between the ages of 16 and 25 whose parent's on-the-job death or injury resulted in a substantial decline in family income.

Your Support... Makes a Difference

We provide financial scholarships to children of seriously injured workers so that they can pursue and achieve their educational goals.

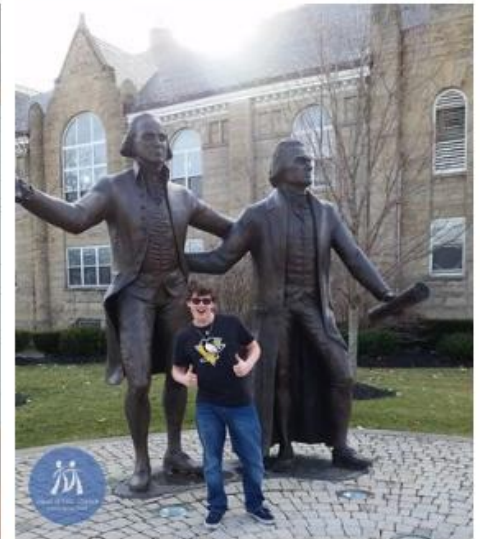

In North Carolina:
