The Southeastern Safety Council organized in 1940, has developed an ongoing program to help in the reduction on the loss of North Carolina's vital human and economic resources.

The Southeastern Safety Council is sponsored by the Industrial Commission Safety/Education Section, a Division of the North Carolina Department of Commerce.

OBJECTIVES

The objective of the Southeastern Safety Council is to promote safety in industry, home, and public places with special emphasis placed upon industrial safety. It is operated as an independent, non-commercial, non-political organization.

COUNCIL AREA

Bladen, Brunswick, Columbus, Cumberland, Hoke, Moore, Robeson, New Hanover, Pender, Sampson, and Scotland

PROGRAMS

Programs of the Southeastern Safety Council are held in January, March, September and November at different locations throughout the eleven counties. For these programs, we secure outstanding speakers in the field of safety. You will receive specific information covering each program.

The Council conducts an all-day safety workshop which includes relevant safety and health topics, motivational speakers, and lunch.

MEMBERSHIP

Membership in the council offers you the opportunity of meeting and exchanging ideas with other members with the common goal of preventing accidents and injuries both on and off the job.
