

LIFE SAVING AWARD

The Council sponsors a life saving award for an individual who has performed an act requiring unusual skill and/or courage above and beyond the call of duty. Application can be requested from any of the officers or board members of the Council.

REGIONAL SAFETY TALK

A Regional Safety Talk is sponsored by the Council in March of each year. The winner from the Council will compete at the Statewide Safety Conference in May with other Council winners for the State Safety Talk.

If you are a member and desire information regarding the Council, or if you are not yet a member but would like to become one, you are requested to contact one of the Southeastern Safety Council Officers or the Safety Director, N.C. Industrial Commission, Dobbs Building, 430 N. Salisbury St., Raleigh, North Carolina 27611. Phone (919) 733 - 5290.

The Southeastern Safety Council organized in 1940, has developed an ongoing program to help in the reduction on the loss of North Carolina's vital human and economic resources.

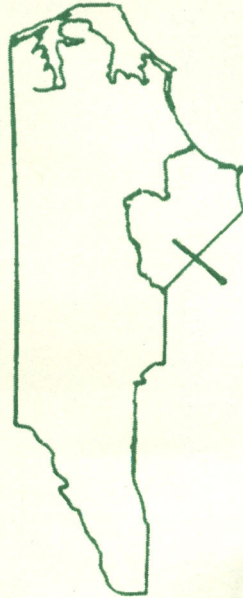

The Southeastern Safety Council is sponsored by the Industrial Commission Safety Department, a Division of the North Carolina Department of Commerce

OBJECTIVES

The objective of the Southeastern Safety Council is to promote safety in industry, home, and public places with special emphasis placed upon workplace safety. It is operated as an independent, non-commercial, non-political organization

COUNCIL AREA

Bladen, Brunswick, Columbus, Cumberland, Hoke, Moore, Robeson, New Hanover, Pender, Sampson, and Scotland

PROGRAMS

Programs of the Southeastern Safety Council are held Quarterly at different locations throughout the eleven counties. For these programs, we secure outstanding speakers in the field of safety. You will receive specific information covering each program.

The Council conducts an all-day safety workshop which includes relevant safety and health topics, motivational speakers, and lunch.
