

Life Saving Award

The Council sponsors a life saving award for an individual who has performed an act requiring unusual skill and/or courage above and beyond the call of duty. An application can be requested from any of the officers or board members of the council.

Safety Talk Contest

A Safety Talk contest is sponsored by the MID-STATE SAFETY COUNCIL in March of each year. The winner from the Council will compete in May with the other Council winners for the Statewide Safety Talk honors.

THE MID-STATE SAFETY COUNCIL

The Mid-State Safety Council, organized in 1935, has developed an ongoing program to help in the reduction in the loss of North Carolina's vital human economic resources

OBJECTIVES

The objective of the MID-STATE SAFETY COUNCIL is to promote safety in industry, local government, home, and public places with special emphasis placed upon industrial safety. It is operated as an independent, non-commercial, non-political organization. The MID-STATE SAFETY is designed to be a network for safety-minded professionals, coming together with employee safety as a common goal, providing quarterly meetings and workshops designed to meet the needs of an ever changing workplace.
