

DIANA E. FARRELL
DIRECTOR OF SELF-INSURANCE
MARYLAND WORKERS' COMPENSATION COMMISSION

Ms. Farrell has been involved in the field of workers' compensation for almost 20 years having served in various positions at the New York State Workers' Compensation Board between 1977 and 1995. During her tenure, she served as Secretary to the Board for five years. In that capacity, she oversaw the operations of the Self-Insurance Department and was custodian of securities deposited for self-insurance purposes.

In 1995, Ms. Farrell relocated to Baltimore, Maryland to take a position as a regional administrator for a company that provided consulting services in computer systems integration. In January of 1997, she was appointed Director of Self-Insurance at the Maryland Workers' Compensation Commission.

Ms. Farrell is a past President of the Eastern Association of Workers' Compensation Boards and Commissions. She served as a member of the Legislative Committee of the International Association of Industrial Accident Boards and Commissions for three years, and Chairman of the IAIABC Membership Committee for two years.
