

Amy S. Berry

Oxner, Thomas + Permar, PLLC

409 Alamance Road, Suite C

Burlington, North Carolina 27215

(336) 274-4494

aberry@otplaw.com

EDUCATION

University of North Carolina at Greensboro, Greensboro, North Carolina

B.A. in Communications

1993

Campbell University, Buies Creek, North Carolina

Juris Doctor

1998

Clerked for Deputy Commissioner Chrystal Redding Stanback during law school which resulted in a significant knowledge and understanding of workers' compensation law and the North Carolina Industrial Commission.

EXPERIENCE

Plaintiff's Attorney Focusing in Workers' Compensation Claims

1998-present

Practiced law, focusing on the representation of Plaintiff's in workers' compensation claims for the past ten (10) years.

Board Certified Workers' Compensation Specialist

2003

Obtained certification as a certified workers' compensation specialist in the state of North Carolina during 2003 and continues to maintain certification through case and court experience and the representation of Plaintiff's in workers' compensation cases.

Certified North Carolina Industrial Commission & Superior Court

2006

Mediator

Obtained and maintained certification as a certified mediator for both North Carolina Industrial Commission cases as well as Superior Court cases in the state of North Carolina since 2006.

MEMBERSHIPS

- North Carolina State Bar Association
- American Bar Association
- North Carolina Academy of Trial Lawyers
- Alamance County Bar Association