

Myra L. Griffin

Myra L. Griffin was appointed as a Deputy Commissioner on February 18, 2005. She received her B.A. degree in Political Science from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill in 1994 and her J.D. degree, cum laude, from North Carolina Central University School of Law in 1997.

She has worked with the Industrial Commission as an Agency Legal Specialist for former Commissioner René C. Riggsbee and as a Special Deputy Commissioner with the Executive Secretary's Office. Before her appointment as a Deputy Commissioner, Ms. Griffin worked as an Assistant Attorney General with the Tort Claims Section of the N.C. Department of Justice. In this capacity, she served as Agency Counsel to the Industrial Commission and Prosecutor with the Workers' Compensation Fraud Investigations Unit. After becoming a Deputy Commissioner, Ms. Griffin was selected to continue working with the Fraud Investigations Unit as the supervisor of the Commission Staff.
