

Keischa Lovelace

Keischa Lovelace is the Director of Claims Administration at the Industrial Commission. Ms. Lovelace graduated in 1996 from North Carolina State University Magna Cum Laude with a B.A. in History, Social Studies Teacher Option with minors in Political Science and African-American Studies. Ms. Lovelace received her Juris Doctor degree with honors from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill School of Law in 2002. Ms. Lovelace was admitted to the North Carolina State Bar in August 2002 and began working at the Industrial Commission as a Special Deputy Commissioner in September 2006. Ms. Lovelace became the Director of Claims Administration in June 2008.